Client Information

- Joshua Kelly
- CEO of Full Court Analytics
- Director of Analytics at Purdue Fort Wayne

Mentor Feedback

- He helped us with a routing issue we were having when hitting a submit button for the sign up page.
- He said that we should focus on testing our functional items first and then add test to test the API calls to the backend.
- He thought our software looked good and clean so far.

Client Feedback

- Make it so that annotators click a 'continue later' button, so they do not have to annotate the whole game at one time.
- Going to change the color scheme of the website in iteration 3.
- Whenever we click 'finish game' in annotator, the game should not disappear, instead it should have an option to edit a game.
- Overall, he was very appreciated of all of the work we are putting in for the project.

Iteration 3 Features

- Adapt workflow to Annotator
- Create play-by-play page
- Create game stats page
- Change color scheme
- Research shot chart options
